1983

FROM THE EDITOR . . .

"Holy cow! That's probably what you said when you looked at the cover of this yearbook. Then when you looked on page one you probably thought that this book was for the birds!" Well, you're wrong! This book was produced by a team of highly trained technical experts and they're all part of a wonderful yearbook staff. However, most of them have returned to their cells at the state mental institution where life is not so difficult. We hope you enjoy the book and find it free of errors and mistakes. It's not often you'll find a book of this calibre that only costs a small fortune.

But you can bet your Big Mac that we've tried to bring you the best for less . . . or is it less for best? . . . or is it, least for most? Who cares! Read it and enjoy it, but don't complain to me. Refer your complaints to Sarah Sarkastic (pictured below) . . . she'll tell you what she thinks about your comments."

Thank you,
The Editor

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

ANTHONY B. FRUHAUF

To The Class of 1983

This message is for you now, as you leave Prairie and go on to the next phase of your life's learning; I also hope you will choose to reread it when you pull your Prairie yearbook off the shelf five, ten, perhaps even twenty years from now. Not that your headmaster is a memorable author — far from it; simply, these thoughts are very much my own and are offered as probably the most personal contribution I can make to your process of "summing up" the meaning of the years you have spent at Prairie.

The major, "official" benefit of your time has been, of course, your academic learning, coupled with the extracurricular areas where you have developed yourselves in very important ways. Most of you have probably seen all this as preparation for college, careers, and success in the world. Indeed, a recent poll of college freshmen has indicated that nearly 70% of them regard formal education as a pathway to material and worldly success.

Whether you feel that way or not, there is another, more significant aim which I would like to suggest for all of us. It is that we always try to practice and progress in the art of giving. Too often we spend our early adult years being as busy and successful as opportunity allows, only to find that the ability to see others' needs and meet them remains underdeveloped. Perhaps, as time progresses for us, we all will be able to define Success more in terms of satisfying and enriching other people's lives as we move through our own. More than ever, I feel that this is the key to the inner happiness which we all are really seeking - even when we look towards prosperity or worldly recognition.

Please look around you carefully, if you will, while you go through the final days of your Prairie career. I think you can recognize the people who have given of themselves to you; certainly, if you think back during the coming years, their gifts to you will become more and more evident. One of their greatest rewards will be to know that you are perpetuating the vital art of giving which keeps us all really alive.

With my best personal regards and wishes for you in the coming years,

Anthony B. Fruhauf

Middle: Jeff Heyden, Denis Navratil, Chris Schuleit, Mark Johnson, John Batten, Don Biscardi. Front: Pat Thom, Terry Chapko, Rolf Windh, Steve Lamberton, Eric Englander, Richard Ruffo.

This years season was full of triumphs and tragedies. We lost in the Parkside Invitation Tournament game to St. Cats 1-0, but we managed to beat them later in the season 2-0. Our biggest victories were against cross-town rival Horlick and conference rival Notre Dame, both being very tough contests. We managed to compile a 12-5-1 record, extending Coach Henkes' string of "non-losing" season records, but we failed to qualify for the State tourney. Our season was full of bad breaks; injuries and untimely losses. We lost 1-0 to Marquette who won the State Championship, and we tied USM 3-3, the conference champs. Our team was definitely championship caliber, but a loss to St. John kept us out of the tourney. Individually, our team had the most members on the all conference and all county teams, and Denis Navratil won player of the year honors in Racine County.

GIRLS TENNIS

Girls Tennis Back: Amy Addison, Anne Walker, Liz Pehlivanian, Shazia Rafiullah, Molly Walker, Liz Gabriel, Shayla Kontra. Middle: Elaine Smith, Mary Osmundsen, Vicki McManus, Bettina Khoja, Mary Taylor, Felicia Khoja. Front: Cheryl Knappe, Ann Falstad, Jenny Nilles, Julie Ericson, Kris Falstad, Emily Ericson

The Hawks had a fine season winning the Racine County meet, Regionals and placing Fourth at the State meet. They were paced by Kristin Falstad who finished 4th in the State at number one singles, while Chryl Knappe did the same at No.2 singles. Emily and Jenny won No.1 doubles in the Regional and lost in the quarterfinals at the State Meet. Julie and Ann also won their regional finishing 4th at the State meet. The squad next year will miss Mary Taylor who played No.3 singles and Mary Osmundson who played No.3. doubles with Shayla Kontra. Our fourth singles players was Felicia Khoja. The Hawks should be better than ever in 1983 with this young talented group.

GOLF

Back: Coach Bill, Mike McCurdy, Bill Walker, Pete Pavalko, Ara Pehlivanian. Front: John Ramos, Tim Albrect, Peter Wilson, Lee Christiansen.

The 1982 edition of the Prairie Hawk squad showed good through the season. Lead by Sophomore Ara Pehlivanian and Junior Mike McCurdy, the squad finished with a 5-6 record. Graduating from this years team are seniors Pete Pavalko, Mike Veranth, and Bill Walker.

CHEERLEADERS

The 1982-83 Cheerleading Squad worked very hard to reintroduce the idea to Prairie. The Cheerleaders attended a clinic prior to the season, in which they learned many new cheers and ideas about being a cheerleader. They tried to involve the crowd as much as possible, and they raised a lot of school spirit! They really proved to be an important aspect to the basketball games. The cheerleaders should be proud of themselves for a successful season!

 I've had enough of being trodden on
 My passive days are long gone
 If you slap a cheek, well, I ain't gonna turn the other life is for the living ...
 ~John Entwistle

Life's just a cocktail party on the street

People try to put us down
Just because we get around Things they do look awful cold
Hope I die before I get

And malt does more than Milton can
To justify God's ways to man.
Ale, man, ale's the stuff to drink
For fellows whom it hurts to think:
Look into the pewter pot
To see the world as the world's not.
- A. E. Houseman

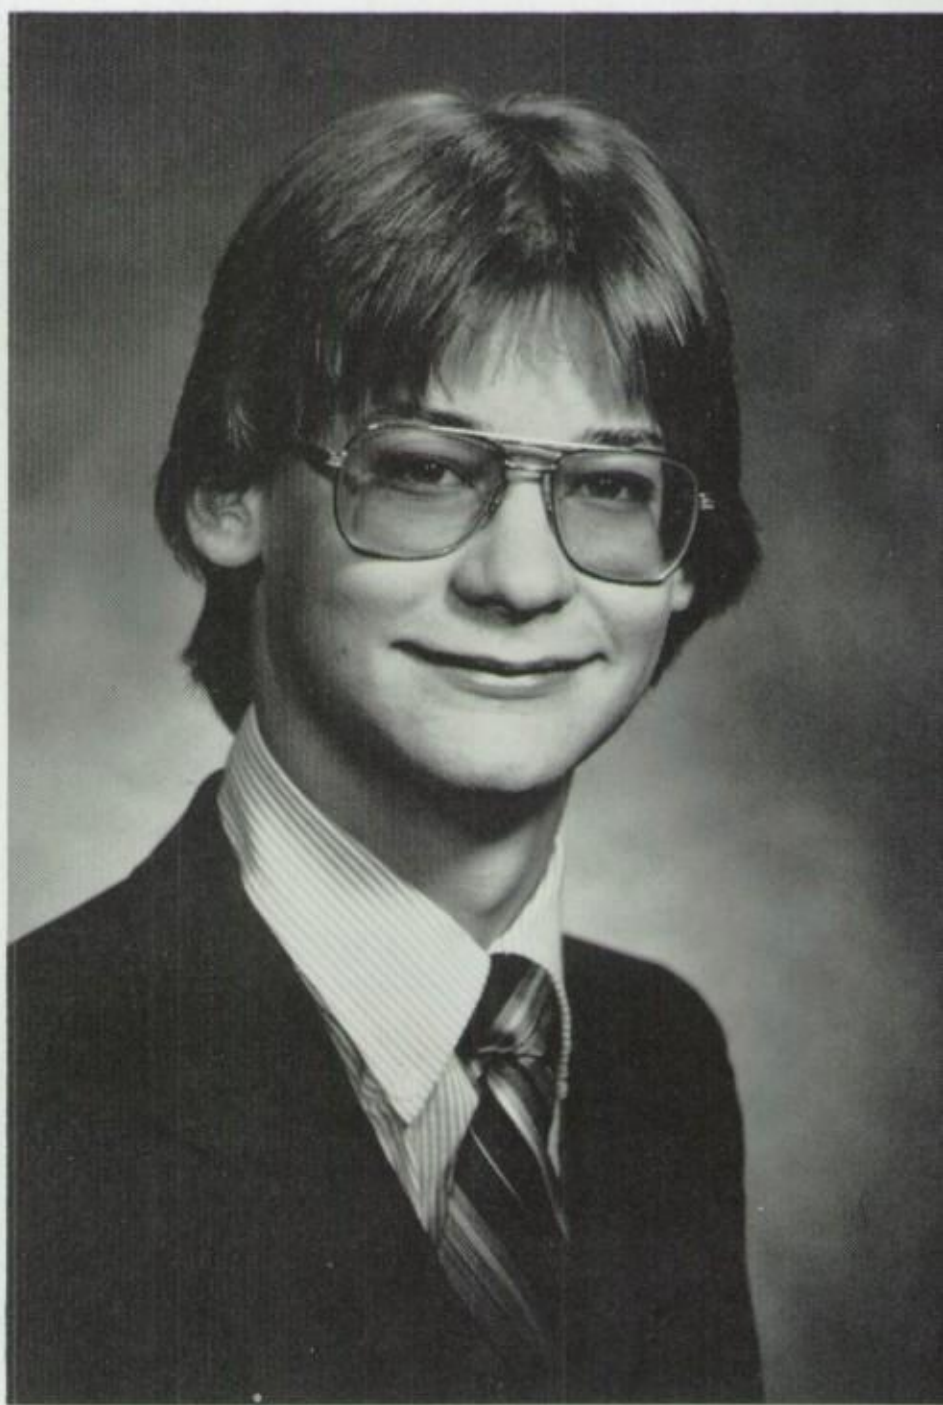

Is all that we see or seem but a dream within a dream?
- Edgar Allen Poe

Two roads converged in the wood and I, I took the one less traveled by,
and that has made all the difference.

"I can't should be permanantly stricken from your vocabulary."
 -Arnold Schwarzenegger

The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched.

They must be felt with the heart.

-Hellen Keller

Half of being smart is knowing what you're dumb at.

* YOU'RE RIGHT. SHAKESPEARE IS BETTER THAN ROBERT FROST. "

For what is your friend that you should seek him with hours to kill?
Seek him always with hours to live.
Kahlil Gibran

What, Sir, would the people of the earth be without women? They would be scarce, Sir, almighty scarce.
Kenneth Grooms

"Yes," said Piglet, "Rabbit has Brain." "I suppose," said Pooh, "that that's why he never understands anything."
A.A. Milne

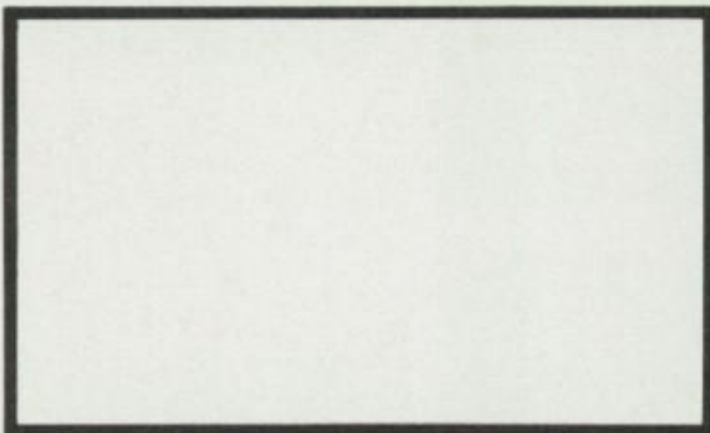

Is this a Hearty Joke, or is it the Merest Accident?
-Eeyore

Never imagine yourself not to be otherwise than what it might appear to others that what you were or might have been was not otherwise than what you had been would have appeared to them to be otherwise.
-The Duchess in Alice in Wonderland

KARLA SWANSON

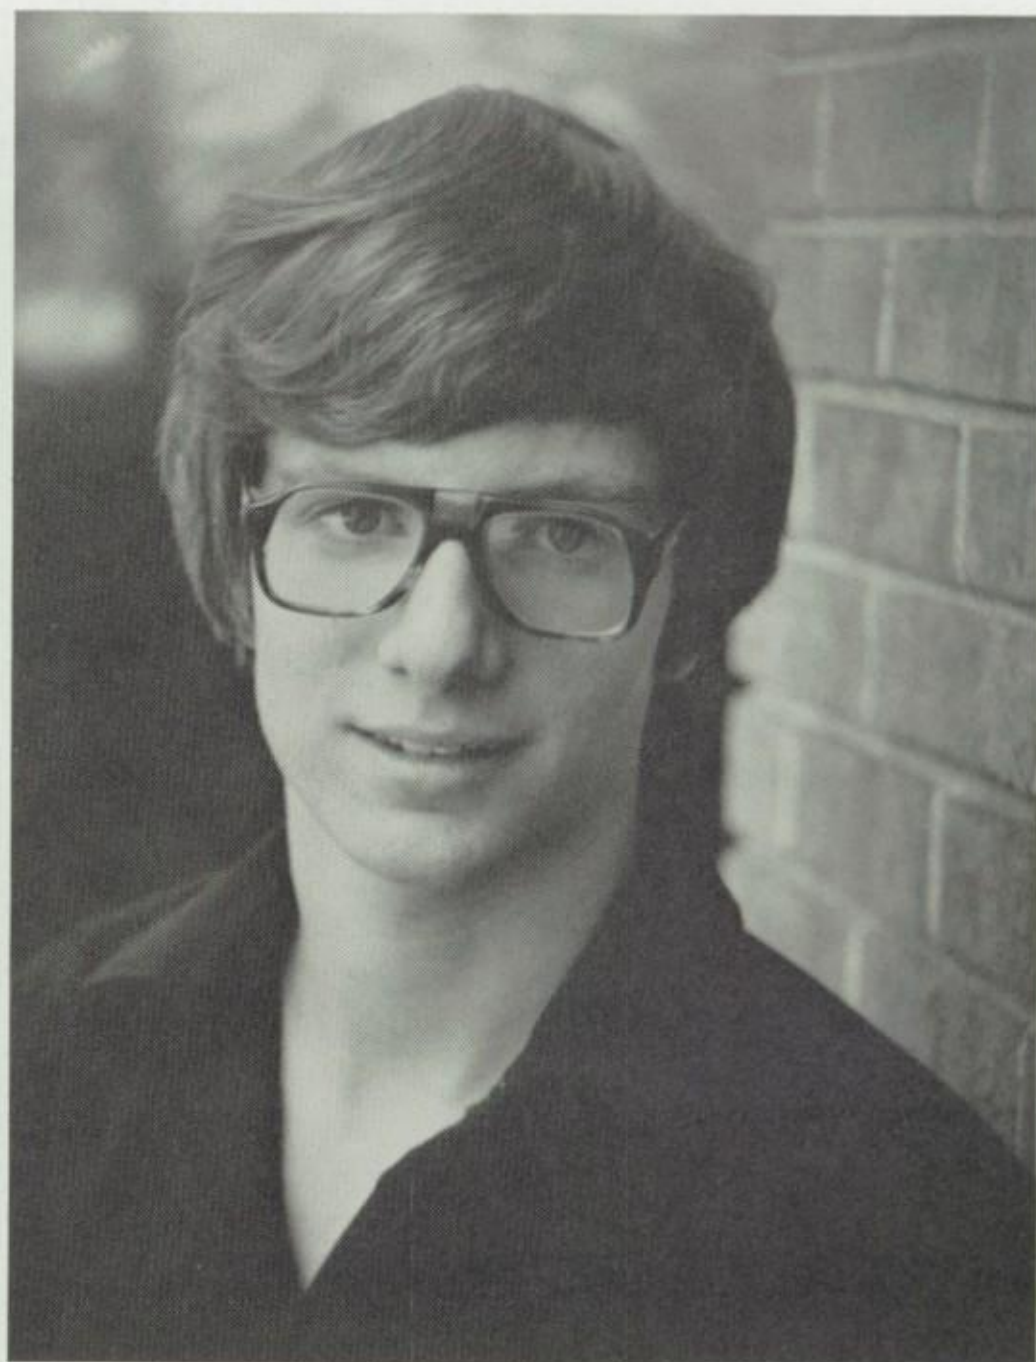

Loosen your hands, let go and say good-by.
Let the stars and songs go.
Let the faces and years go.
Loosen your hands and say good-by.
-Carl Sandburg

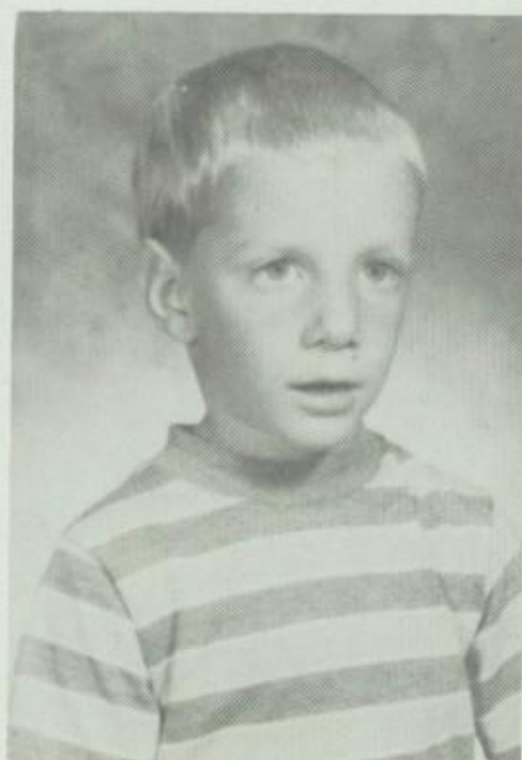

"When angry, count four; when very angry, swear."
-Twain

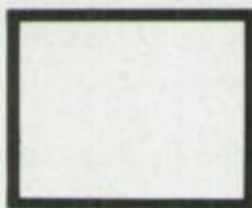

The ultimate destiny of man is to change his immediate destiny.

For the sea refuses no river
Remember that when the beggar buys a round
The sea refuses no river
And rain fills the gutters
No time for stutters
This is our chance
To sing and to dance and to clown
The sea refuses no river
And rivers were sprung to drown

The sea refuses no river
No pecking code respected for the damned
The sea refuses no river
Whether starving and ill
Or strung on some pill
Just 'cos you own the land
There's no unique hand plugs the dam
The sea refuses no river
And the river is where I am
-Charles Townshend

I don't matter-you don't matter
Neither does this mindless clatter
It don't matter where you're from
What matters is your uniform
-Charles Townshend

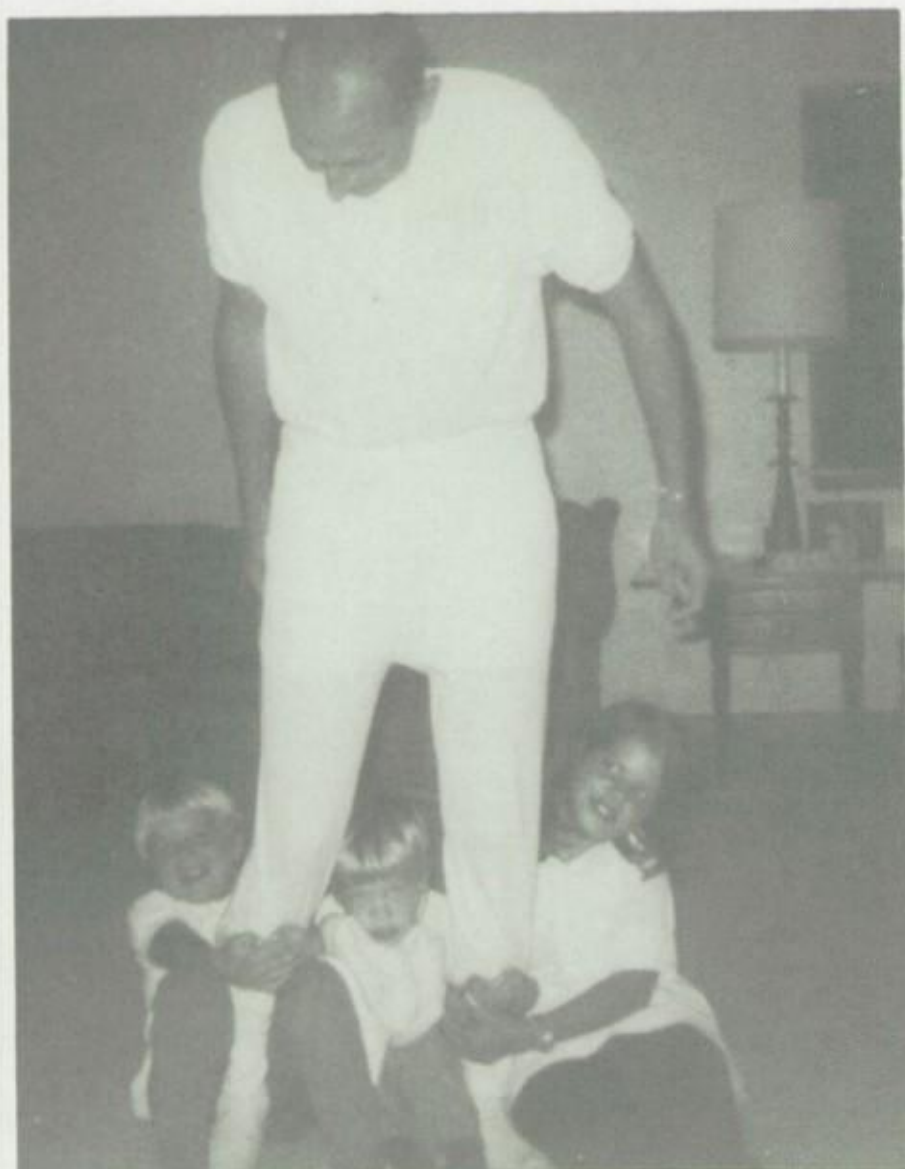

If you gotta ask what jazz is,
you ain't never gonna know.
-Fats Waller

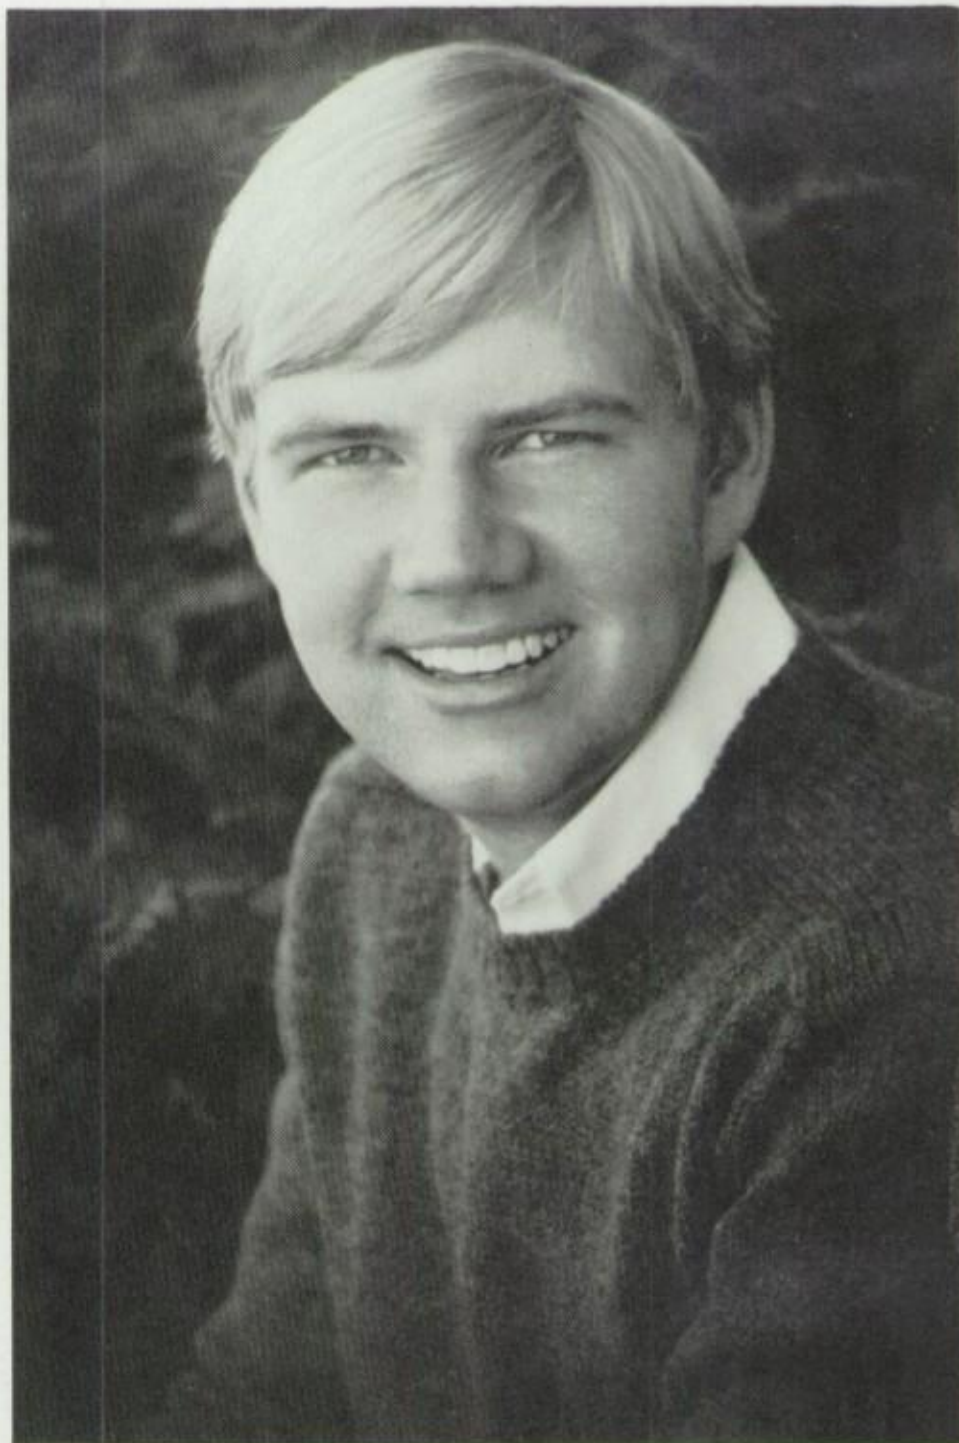

New York-lookin' down on Central Park
Where they say you should not wander after dark.
-Benny Gallagher & Graham Lyle

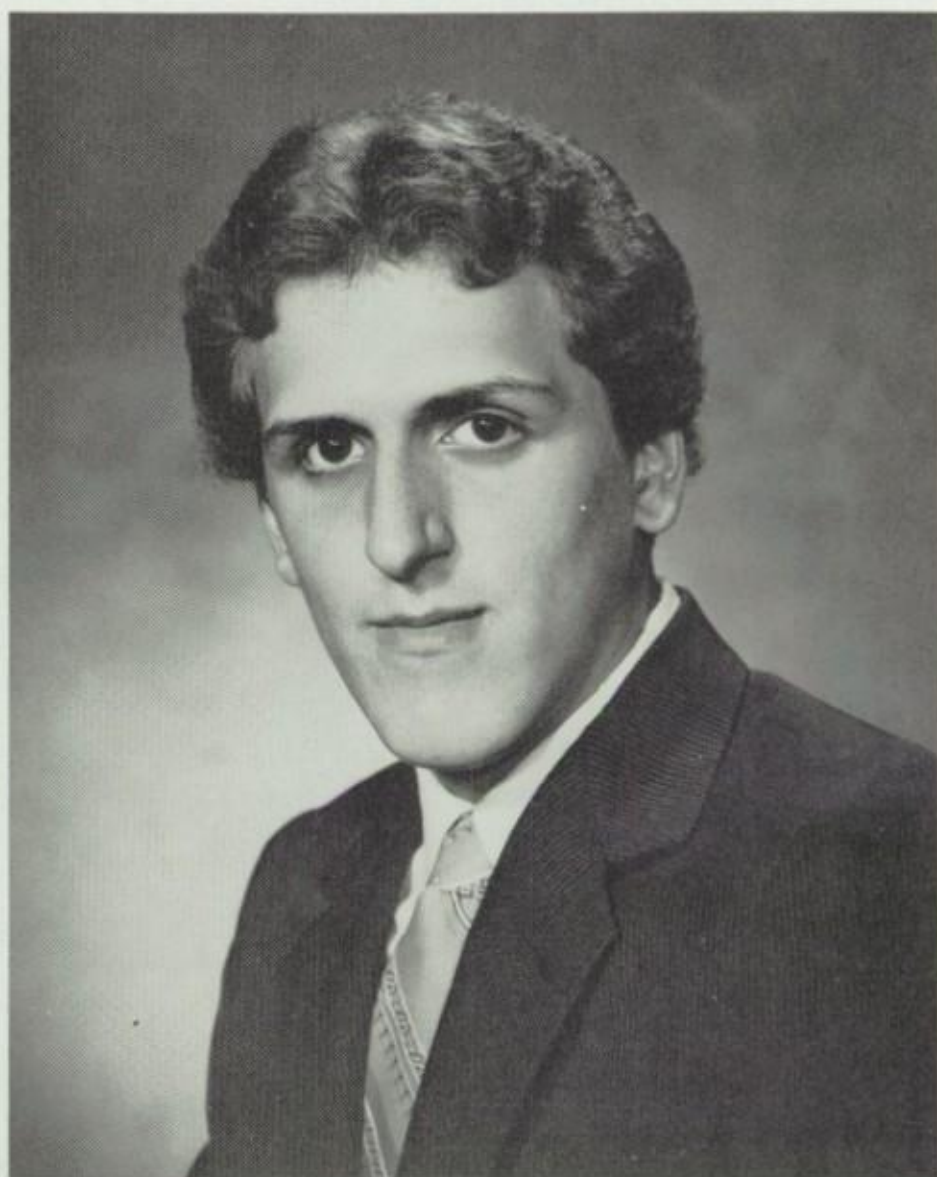

Victories that are easy are cheap.
Those only are worth having which come as the result of hard fighting.
-Henry Ward Beecher

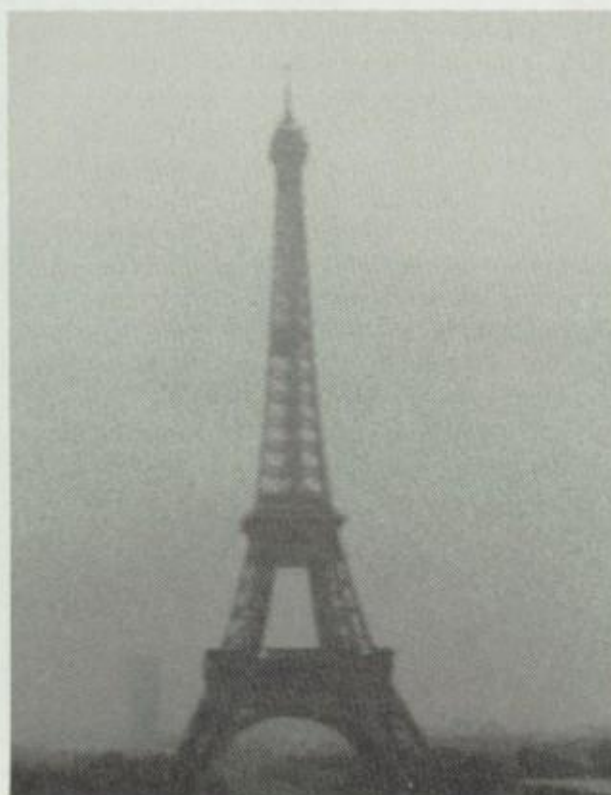

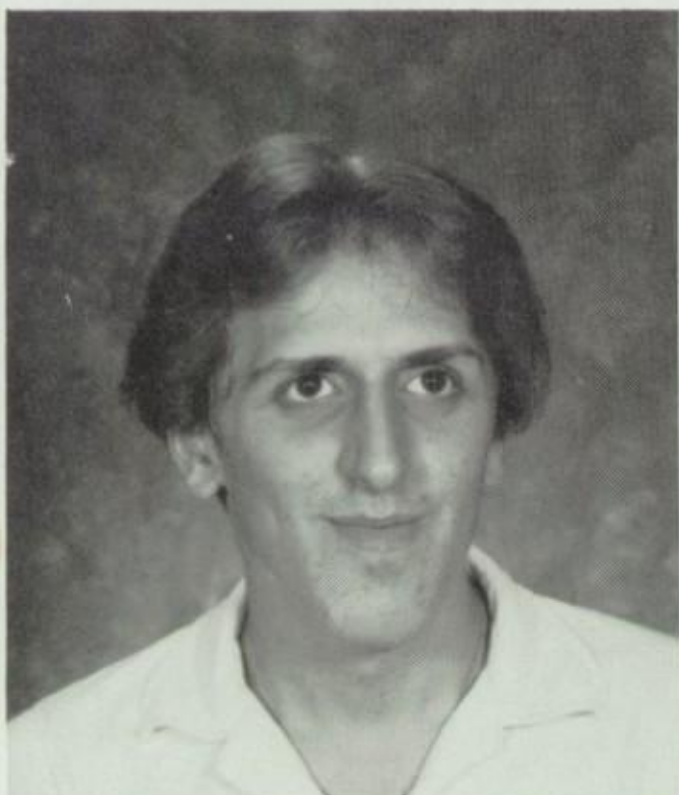

If we value the pursuit of knowledge,
we must be free to follow
wherever that search may lead us.
-Adlai Stevenson

Don't arrange to have me sent to no asylum,
I'm just as sane as anyone,
It's just a game I play for fun- for fun.
I told 'em- look! - I said I'm not the way you're thinkin'.
Just when I'm down I'll be the clown, I'll play the fool.
Please don't arrange to have me sent to no asylum, I'm just as sane as anyone.
It's just a game I play for fun- for fun.
-Supertramp

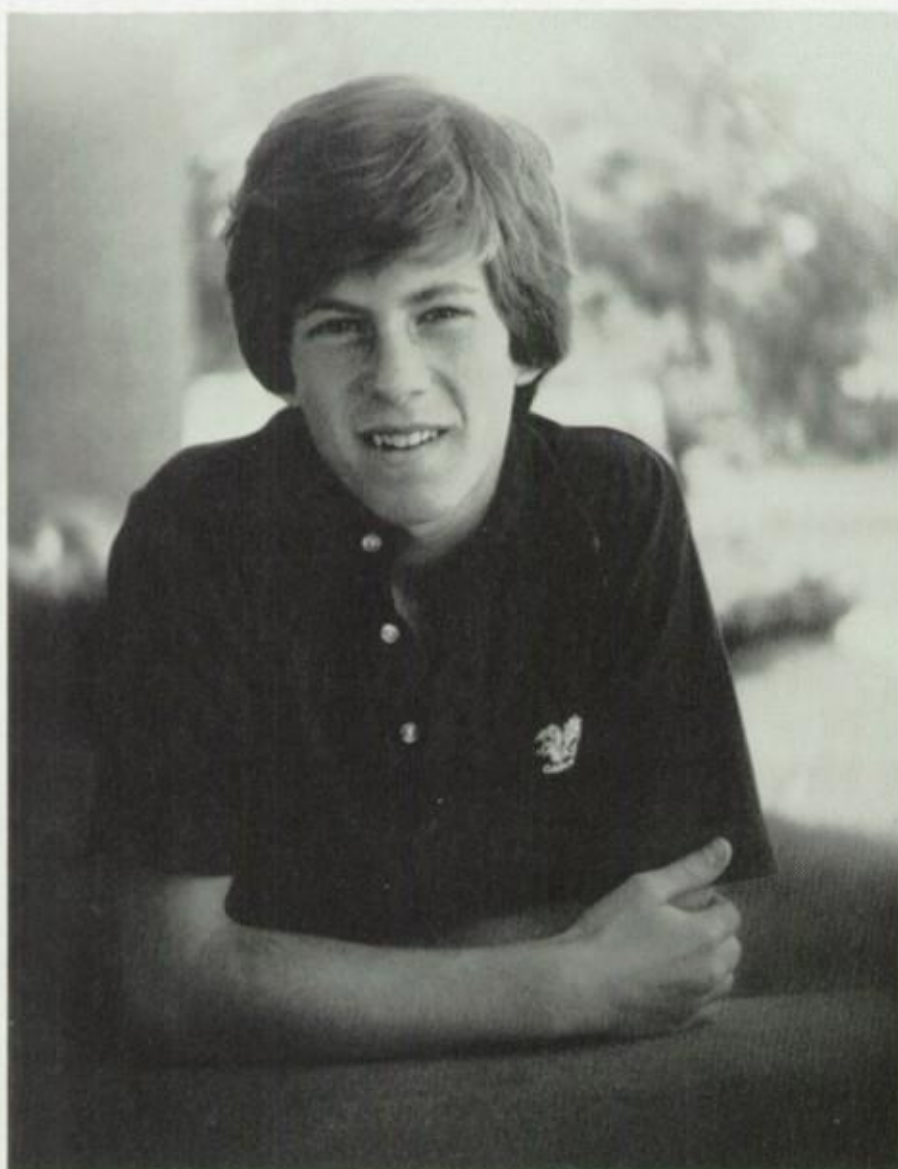

DON'T SIT DOWN IN THE MEADOW
AND WAIT FOR THE COW TO BACK UP AND BE MILKED - GO AFTER THE COW.
ELBERT HUBBARD
